

Greetings Father, Mr. Joe, Dao, and Parishioners.

Yesterday, I received $291,928,000 VND support for the children for the new school year 2024-2025.

I have mixed emotions of joy, happiness, and gratitude for the love everyone has for the children. As someone who's responsible for raising the children, I feel I am loved, protected, cared for, and taken care in everything by God through yourself and everyone. I have no word to express my gratitude, besides saying thanks and prayers to you and everyone every day.

I'd like to also provide some good news.

1. Y Nu and Y Yeu Ori, formerly received boarding at Phường Quy have graduated from their English course and found jobs in Da Nang, they now are able to take care of their lives as well as help their families.

2. On August 15th, Y Ngoen completed her University course in Early Learning Education in Ban Me Thuot. She invited me to attend her Graduation Ceremony. After that, she will commence her religious life in the Sister's Order.

3. Y Hang completed her Primary Teaching Degree and worked for 1 year, then following God's call, she decided to join the Sisters' Order. This year, she entered the novitiate, and in 2 years, she will take her vows and become a Nun.

4. Y Ngan just completed Year 12 and will continue her education in Early Learning Education courses at University in Kontum.

5. Y Khue is in her 2nd year in Nursing in Gia Lai.

6. Y Vut is also in her 2nd year in Nursing in Kontum.

7. Y Dang and Y Bich are in 2nd year English course at the University in Quy Nhon.

8. The children currently boarding at Phường Quy are very good, lovely, obedient, studious, polite, most of them do well and are praised by School for their dedicated learning style.

Comparing to the initial difficulties encountered when I just returned to Phuong Quy convent, the love and care for the children are my greatest motivation and daily joy during the time the girls and I spend together.

The information presented to you and everyone at this new school year is the very and the deepest gratitude the children and myself would like to send you. The children pray for the Parish and everyone there every day, may God's grace be with you Fr Linh as you move to the new Parish, may peace and good health be with everyone in the Parish.
